

ENCV - ENGLISH/WRITING DEVELOPMENTAL ED

ENCV 0025 Developmental Writing 2

Hours: 4

Prerequisites: Appropriate placement test score in writing

In this course, students learn college entry-level writing skills. The course covers content development and organization for short essays, grammar, punctuation, and mechanics. Critical thinking and collaborative learning are emphasized. Classroom and online activities, writing assignments, and other appropriate technology tools reinforce these skills.

ENCV 0027 Combined Developmental Reading and Writing

Hours: 4

Prerequisites: Appropriate test scores in reading and writing or exemption from placement testing

This course covers, in combined form, the learning objectives of upper level developmental reading and writing courses. Course delivery is a combination of class lecture, activities, and essay writing. The course is open to any exempt student, or non-exempt student with postsecondary education readiness test (PERT) scores of at least 95 in reading and 90 in writing. Students with PERT or comparable scores below this must register in applicable reading and/or writing developmental courses. Successful completion of the course will satisfy the developmental reading and writing requirement and allow students to enroll in ENC 1101.
