

30-HOUR ADVISING NOTE

Florida College System associate in arts students are required to identify the bachelor's degree program and college/university of interest by the time they earn 30 credit hours.

Once a student identifies the program and institution of interest, the Florida college will let the student know about the common prerequisite requirements.

The purpose of the 30-hour advising rule is to improve articulation and reduce excess credit hours.